Riai Aikido is pleased to announce

O Sensei Revisited Down Under Workshop With Shihan Robert Nadeau, 8th Dan

Shihan Robert Nadeau, 8th Dan, has trained and influenced several generations of Aikido teachers in America, Europe, NZ, Russia and Israel. In the 1960's he studied as a personal student of Aikido founder Morihei Ueshiba (O Sensei), receiving personal instruction from O Sensei in the spiritual, philosophical and energy aspects of Aikido.

"The inner work of O Sensei should not be lost" says Shihan Robert Nadeau – Experience 'The O Sensei Process of Development' shared by Shihan Nadeau, through direct practice, techniques and discussion at this Riai Aikido O Sensei Revisited Down Under Workshop.

Shihan Nadeau's approach is to give students something applicable to daily life and to aid in self-transformation. He is currently ranked 8th Dan and was awarded the title of Shihan by Moriteru Ueshiba, grandson of the founder of Aikido, O Sensei.
